

Music in the Woods, the best end-of-summer outdoor celebration, is back on September 9th and you can be a part of it!

Step into Imago's magical urban forest and the cheerful whimsy of Music in the Woods to enjoy a full day of live performances by local musicians and artists. Music in the Woods is not only a great celebration, proceeds from the event further Imago's mission. Your sponsorship of this cherished community event supports engaging nature programs for urban youth, inspiring sustainability workshops for the community, and the preservation of 37 acres of urban greenspace to be enjoyed by all.

Performances by local musicians, fun activities for the whole family, local beer and food, and an amazing silent auction are just a few of the things you'll find at Music in the Woods!

Get in on the celebration! If you're passionate about creating inclusive outdoor spaces, enriching outdoor education, and transformative environmental programming, choose to become a sponsor of Music in the Woods. It's easy – review the sponsor opportunities at imagoearth.org/mitw, then complete our online form to confirm your level of support or contact me with your interest - whatever is easiest for you..
